Fantasy Becomes Reality in Colorado Independent Film

(Denver) – Local filmmakers are pulling out all the stops of a big budget feature for an independent price. High action stunts and swordplay, extensive creature make-up and CGI effects, all filmed in Colorado highlighting its beautiful landscapes. Asgard Entertainment in association with Gathering of Heroes, LLC has been on location throughout Colorado during the month of August and continuing in September, shooting a new Fantasy/Action film titled “Gathering of Heroes: The Legend of the Seven Swords”.

Synopsis

Gathering of Heroes is set in the mystical realm of Ryntia, the forces of the underworld are aligning to unleash a plague of evil upon the surface. Lead by Bre’Gwen, queen of the deep elves, they seek to destroy the human and elven kingdoms and rule all of Ryntia in the name of evil. But Bre’Gwen’s forces are no match for the powerful Grayraven kingdom led by the majestic king, Garrick Grayraven. To ensure their success, Bre’gwen forges an alliance with an unlikely human who holds the secret to acquiring a powerful artifact that will allow them to summon and control an army of undead warriors from centuries past. Guided by fragmented visions, a mysterious Oracle gathers seven unlikely heroes to face the threat. A heroic knight, a deep elf sorceress, an eccentric bard, a silver elf druid, a righteous paladin, a barbarian huntress, and a brooding thief are the only ones capable of stopping this evil at its source...but first they must embark upon a quest to find the legendary seven swords of Draconus.

The goal of Asgard and Company is to create a self-perpetuating market of amazing independent films here in Colorado. Fans of films like Lord of the Rings, and The Chronicles of Narnia will enjoy this tale set within a realm where dragons once roamed and magic is everyday. Enthusiasts of action and swashbuckling films will be drawn in by the high-level combat and battle sequences. The smart characters and real performances will capture anyone still left standing.
